NADO

Tale

Earnestly and respectfully in gratitude for the uncounted hours of service, we, the Class of 1957, dedicate our annual to Roberts Brown.

FACULTY

Dear Students:

It is my utmost desire that all of you, individually and collectively, have constructive experiences during your stay in Clearwater Senior High School. The faculty joins me in this desire for you to make your school days worthwhile.

Your heritage as an American is being seriously threatened and challenged from without. You must be ever mindful of and thankful for the rights and privileges you enjoy as an American. You must also realize there are certain DUTIES and OBLIGATIONS to discharge if you rightfully enjoy the rights and privileges of our democratic way of life. Remember that democracy is dependent upon an informed, participating people. The American public schools provide opportunities to promote and help perpetuate our democratic ideals. It is your duty and responsibility to make the most of your schooling to enable you to transmit a more worthwhile heritage than you received.

I have thoroughly enjoyed my associations with you since I came to Clearwater Senior High School. In years to come I hope that when you look through your 1957 Aqua Clara, many pleasant memories will arise.

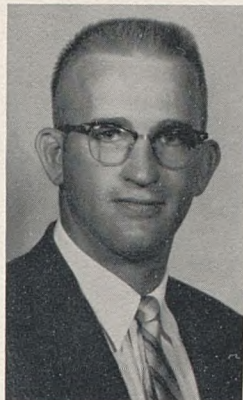

Sincerely,

Robert Glenn, Principal

ORDERS

Senior Class Officers

Pat McElroy, Linda Penegar, Diane Gates, Janet Logan

Commencement, the great challenge to youth, is at hand. We are entering a different life from that of school, and we will be confronted with new opportunities, problems, and responsibilities. Our parents, teachers, and friends have been guiding stars in our lives thus far, and it will be up to each of us to make use of the tools of learning which they have provided for us. As we have weathered the storm, we look to the future with our heads held high . . . unafraid and hopeful.

Farewell to those lazy, laggy, loafsome summer days! Activity is the watchword of this busy Student Council, for they spark an atmosphere of good will among students and teachers alike. This club is the most representative of the school for its aims and ideals strengthen the purpose of education among the student body.

The Student Council sponsored Homecoming and the permanent establishment of a school emblem.

Another arm of the school government, the Senate, is made up of one elected senator and an alternate from each home room. The spirit of democracy in and out of the classroom is advocated by each delegate, and they work diligently to attain this goal.

Of the many activities they engaged in, the sponsoring of the Homecoming Dance and the individual taking of school pictures were the features on their agenda.

Inter Club Council

The good ship I.C.C. set sail in September with all flags and pennants flying for the 1956-57 cruise. Full speed ahead, these vice presidents sailed, regulating compasses of activity among clubs. Inter Club Council is one of the three branches of government in our school, and is supervised by Mr. Diekmeyer.

All hands were called to deck to prepare for the Homecoming Parade and Bonfire. A happy yule season was had by all those who attended their Christmas dance. A main project for the year was the securing of benches for the school grounds.

Key Club

One of the service clubs at C.H.S. is the Key Club. Sponsored by Kiwanis, this group exists only to promote progress at C.H.S. and to promote good will toward the teen-agers in the community. They took part in several charity drives this year and enjoyed working together on their projects.

Usherettes

These perky gals in red and white corduroys do much to spark school spirit in C.H.S. by their constant and faithful service. At football games, amidst flying banners and lusty cheers, they are seen ushering and seating spectators.

For the first time, they are ushering at the basketball games this season. They are responsible for the decoration of the goal posts before each game and also sponsored a football dance. They served at the sports banquet at the close of this school year.

This active group participated in the district contest and Clinic this year. At the Thanksgiving program, a new group emerged from the chorus—the girls' trio. The chorus took part in "Operation Santa Claus," and later held their annual Spring concert.

Madrigal Singers

The "modern day minstrels" of C.H.S. pattern their style of ballad after the old English madrigal singers of years gone by. The selected singers under the supervision of Mr. Butler, perform at various concerts, and at many civic organizations.

In previous years, they have been invited to sing at the Southern Music Educators' Convention held in New Orleans. They received top ratings at both the District and State Contests.

Future Homemakers of America

"If I'd known you were coming, I'd have baked a cake." The members of FHA would probably do just that. This active club under the leadership of Mrs. Zephia Lewis is striving to promote leadership in the field of homemaking.

FHA has started a red-rose planting project around the school. The members acted as hostesses at several conventions at the Fort Harrison Hotel, the State Fair held in the Electrical Exposition Building, and the Pinellas County Fair. A Mother and Daughter Banquet was held at the end of the school year.

These questions plus many more occur when the Florence Nightingales of CHS take their shift working at Morton Plant Hospital. The Future Nurses Club is a service organization dedicated to health betterment and civic service.

Inter Nos

"All roads lead to Rome," and to Inter Nos members, imagination can carry them back to 44 B.C. Second year students with an "A" or "B" average, and first year students with an "A" average are welcomed into the club.

The meetings are centered around early Roman myths, heroes, and customs. Mrs. Gammertsfelder is the new advisor and with her help Inter Nos members enjoy a variety of programs and refreshments.

Habla Vd. Espanol?

Under the able leadership of Mrs. Mildred Turner, better known as "Senora," Los Gauchos has had many interesting hours promoting better relations with our Latin-American neighbors.

The year got off to a big start by the entering of a float in the Homecoming Parade. A Christmas Pinata Party was held; and at Easter all members sold Easter lilies, with the proceeds going to the Florida Chapter of the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults. The year was climaxed with the annual banquet where a traditional Spanish dinner and the customary addresses were held in Spanish.

A red cross with wide arms of equal length on a square and a white background speaks to all people, saying, "In time of peace and prosperity, prepare for calamity." The Junior Red Cross was organized to allow American school children to participate in the Red Cross program.

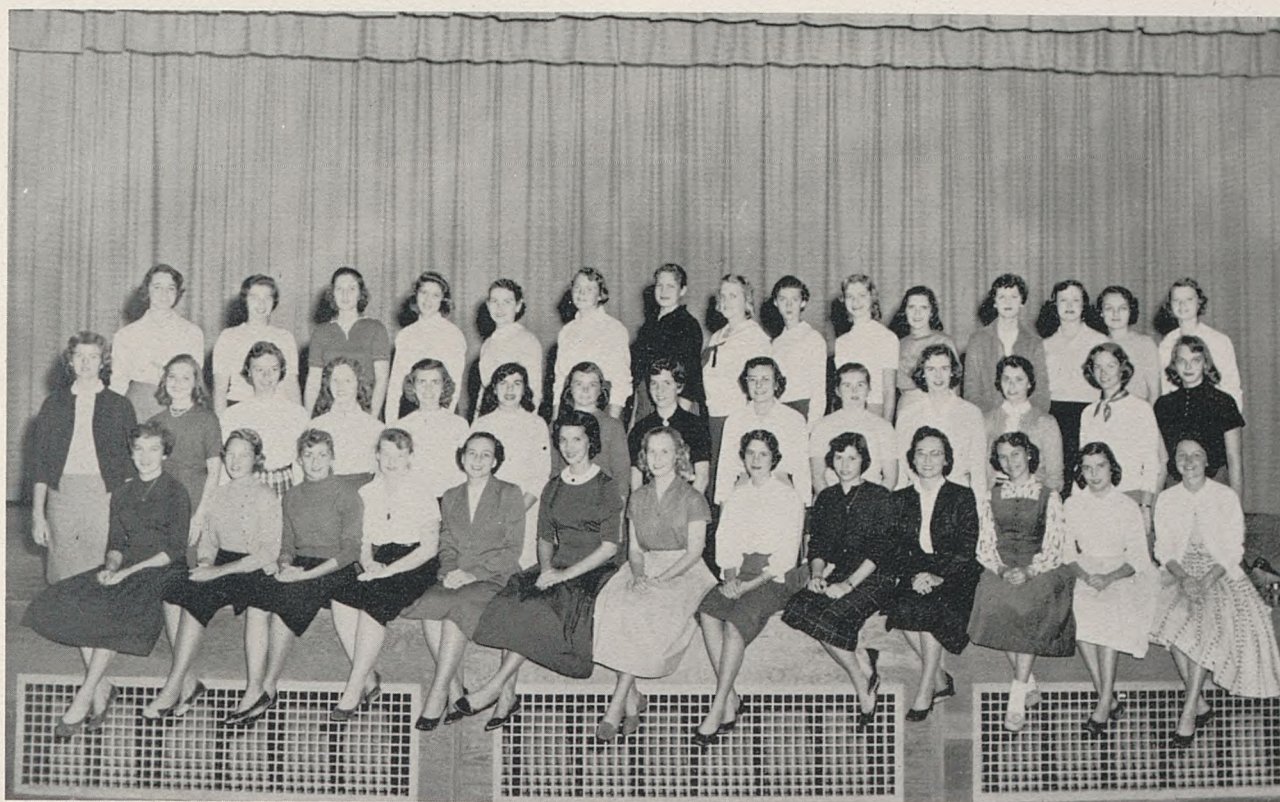

The members in C.H.S., who are appointed by each homeroom, collect contributions made by school members, and attend regularly scheduled meetings.

Y-Service Club

The Y-Service Club is composed of CHS girls who are members of the Young Women's Christian Association. The purpose is to promote Christian growth and fellowship by serving the club, school, and community.

Activities of this club are many and varied: participating in service; collecting canned food for Thanksgiving baskets; helping with the Pancake Picnic; working in the school store; selling potato chips to raise money to send delegates to conference; holding the annual Sweetheart Dance; giving a radio program; having guest speakers; and at the end of the year the election of delegates to attend the Southern Regional conference.

D. C. T.

Eager career seekers have an opportunity to pursue their chosen course and attend school at the same time by their membership in D.C.T. These working students are supervised and helped by the advisor, Mr. Roberts.

A major project was the preparing of Christmas baskets to be distributed among needy families at Christmas time. The members benefited by their attendance at the district convention held in St. Petersburg this year.

The newest cooperative training program at CHS is D.E., which is concerned with education of students for the field of distribution. Under the leadership of Mrs. Pope the members are training for careers in retail, wholesale and service selling businesses in the community.

The D.E. students have joined the national organization of D.E.C.A., Distributive Education Clubs of America, this year with 100% membership. They have been invited to send a representative to the national convention in Oklahoma.

First row: Judy Hahn, Diane Christman, Stephanie Davis, Martha Drayer. Third row: Pat Dills, Sandy Hall, Barbara Gifford, Donna Falconnier, Alice Rogers, Diane Swan, Sonnie Abner, Joan Burns, Sherry Stinski, Claudine Hunter. Fourth row: Buddy Burton, Martha Coachman,

One of the most active clubs in C.H.S., Masque and Gavel, manages to keep busy putting on play performances of a high caliber and having a good time while doing it. Heading this talented club is Mr. Roger Van Gorder, who has done much for the club and school.

Through that memorable Masque and Gavel Play, Arsenic and Old Lace, all worked very hard and loved every minute of it.

Another and new phase of the Masque and Gavel club this year is the debate team, which fared so well in competition with other schools.

The graduating seniors are looking forward to more fine performances from the club in the future.

Future Teachers Club

Those who wish to pattern their lives after faculty friends are members of Future Teachers of C.H.S. Its goal is to acquaint students with the fundamentals of the teaching profession.

Under the co-leadership of Miss Hall and Miss Zierer, the club entered a float in homecoming, and sponsored an assembly program. At their meetings, members learn from speakers, and various other educational activities. They attended the yearly Future Teachers' convention late in the school year.

Chess Club

Second row: Charles Wolfe, Bill Nee, Wilson Hurd, Wesley Hilton.

This year a group of chess enthusiasts, who met on the auditorium steps last year, decided to look for softer berths. Mr. Nesti became their advisor and the club was under way. They met frequently to ponder over the 64 squares as each member tried to reach the top in their ladder tournament. Chess equipment and magazines were purchased.

For such a specialized club, meetings were well attended and were probably the quietest in CHS.

The "letter boys" or the "Crimson and Gray heroes" compose what is commonly known as the "C" Club. All boys who have earned a letter by their participation in school sports may become a member of this club.

The club has been busy selling the CHS sweatshirts and auto tags in an effort to further school spirit. During the basketball season, the boys held an "after-the-game" dance.

National Honor Society

Reading, 'riting and 'rithmetic are not side stepped by members of the Clearwater chapter of the National Honor Society. Every student strives toward the goal of becoming a member and the ones who excel in character, leadership, scholarship, and service are those who are invited to join.

This organization under the guidance of Miss Kirkpatrick, has accomplished many things this year. A "get-acquainted" square dance was held at the beginning of the year for all new students, as the members of Honor Society attempt to acquaint new students with C.H.S. at all times. A mid-year informal dinner, and a final banquet at the end of the year marked the acceptance of the new members of the chapter.

This is an active group, comprised of budding scientists and just plain people, who are brought together by a common interest in science. Their advisor is Mr. William Stephan.

Requirement for membership is a project in science, to be presented before the club. Their regular meetings provide opportunities to hear men of scientific professions in this area speak of careers in science. They also go on field trips to places of scientific interest during the year.

Math Club

Into its third year of operation, the Math Club continued to grow and take part in a greater number of activities. Under Mrs. Johnson's able guidance, it was able to sponsor the Competitive Math Exam, to enter a project in the Science Fair, and to sell slide rules, besides taking part in regular school activities such as the Homecoming Parade.

The only requirements for membership are a "B" average in an advanced math and a genuine interest in the club.

Clearlight Staff

The stage is set. The curtain rises to the steady drawl of writing. The place is D-5 in the afternoon, where, under Mrs. McRae's direction, the "Clearlighters" are preparing for the next publication of the school newspaper, the CLEARLIGHT.

Highlights of various school events, plus special articles of interest and amusement are to be found in this delightful account. A new project of the staff is posting a school calendar of important dates on the main bulletin board.

Aqua Clara Staff

Rush, Rush, Rush! . . . What! only two typewriters? . . . But, I thought you had taken care of that picture . . . Why that's impossible, only two days until our deadline! . . . Remember Chuck Fuller and our Superlatives' Dance? . . .

Well, here it is, gang, your "all" in one 1957 Aqua Clara, put out with the usual amount of hustling, bustling, and confusion. However, preserved inside the covers, are those precious memories and treasures that are so dear to the hearts of all who help to make up the student body of C.H.S.

Library Club

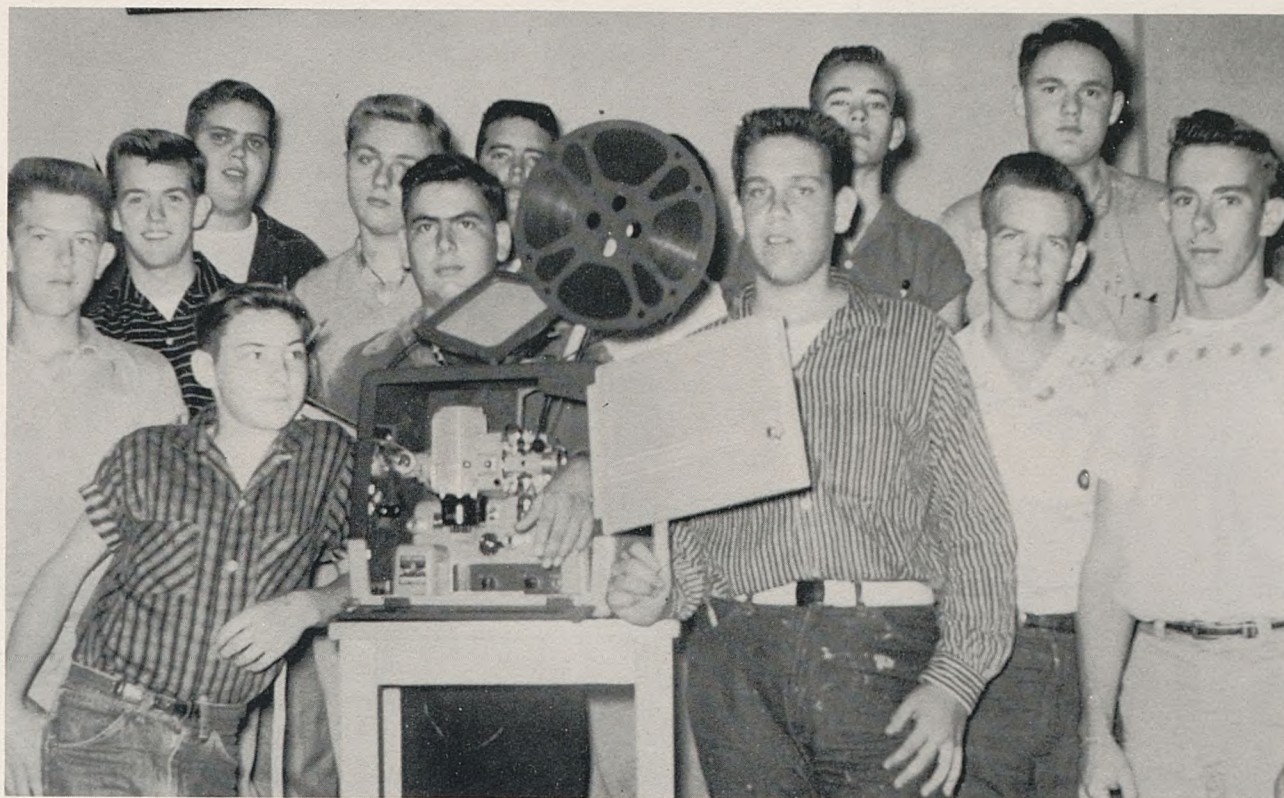

Into the "bookworm's paradise" students are continually coming to seek information and to gain knowledge. Three students are scheduled each period to assist Mrs. Knight, librarian. These assistants make up the membership of the library council. The council works toward the improvement of the library for the benefit of the whole student body.

The club attends two county meetings and conventions during the year.

Audio-Visual Club

Affiliated with the Library Club, and entering into many of their same activities is the Audio-Visual Club. The A-V operators are responsible for running the projectors, the turntable, and the television set. A student operator who has served five years may automatically receive an operator's license. The faculty advisor is Mrs. Mary Lou Knight.

The student operators are sent to the State Convention of the Florida High School Library Council, as well as to the four county meetings during the school year.

Office Assistants

The "busy bees" assisting in the office collecting the absentee slips and making themselves useful in several other tasks are known as the office assistants.

These assistants are an efficient group of gals who help make life smoother and more enjoyable for the office staff.

Orchestra

"Plink, Plank, Plunk" and "Mexican Overture" were numbers featured by the orchestra in their first appearance of this year, which was the Yuletide program, "Operation Santa Claus." The orchestra is composed of the string players, and other selected members from the classes of the director, Mr. Yanetovich.

The orchestra participates in several concerts and contests throughout the year. Before engagements, you may see and hear the orchestra practicing on a high scale before school, and at evening rehearsals.

The organization played in several concerts and parades, as well as taking a special trip to play for the inauguration in Tallahassee. The band gives much service to the school. Playing and drilling for the Football games, pep sessions and assembly programs are just a few of their many school activities.

Baseball

With the coming of spring, baseball invaded the hearts of the ardent baseball-and-bat fans. Tension and suspense were found to be factors at each game, but in spite of this, the team went on to shower thrills and chills onto each and every spectator. Last year CHS went on to win the Western Conference Championship.

First row: Coach Mason, Wendon Henton, Murray Cook, Tommy Moore, Gary Doeringer, Bob Suban, Mike Delaney, Don Meares. Second row: Robert Scidmore, Bill Brown, Coley Tooke, Charley Rains, Ronnie Overcash, Sam Moyers, Buster Narum, Frank Murphy. On your mark! Get set! Go! and they're off with flying colors to win the dash and bring another glory to C.H.S. The track boys go in for the 100, 200, and 440-yard dashes, half mile and mile distance runs, high hurdles, javelin and shot-put throws, broad jump, high jump, and pole vault.

Tennis Team

Whether with a forehand, a backhand, or a serve, the Tennis Team is always there to bring honors to CHS. Although only competing in seven games this year, the boys go in for excessive training so that they are ready for "top flight" before each match.

Golf

President Eisenhower's favorite game is also one of the many sports that CHS students indulge in. Afternoon practices at the Country Club, plus accurate putting and driving make the Golf team a formidable power against their opponents.

Ken Dody, Bobby Henderson, Hank Davis.

Mrs. Dutkin and Mrs. Smith, advisors of the Cheerleaders.

Right: The "get-together" with the Chamberlain cheerleaders during the half-time festivities of the Clearwater vs. Chamberlain football game.

Striking the match to the spirited student body is the cheerleading squad's job. The 12-fold force is responsible for igniting pep and enthusiasm at all events where grandstand participation is essential. They supply cheering support at football and basketball games, and are always present to conduct pep rallies in the school gym.

LINCOLN — MERCURY
FOR LUXURIOUS MOTORING

Cleopatra was as smooth a queen as ever sent neat Mark Anthonys off their rockers.
But Cleopatra had to travel by boat . . . slow boat at that.

Of course, she bedecked her boat with pretty girls and beautiful flowers so dazzlingly that she won all the art and beauty prizes just like the Lincoln has done today, but it was slow going for a queen.

Isn't it neat how Clearwater queens can go by Lincoln making Cleopatra look square? And isn't it neat how all the Mark Anthonys of today bow to Her Highnesses when they go Lincoln?
